

CENTER FOR PARENTING FACILITATION AND COORDINATION

CHILD ASSESSMENT

Please make a copy of this assessment for each of your children.

Name of person completing form: _____

Child's name: _____ Age: _____ Grade: _____

1. How old was your child when your first separated? _____

2. When was your child told about the separation? _____

3. Who told the child about the separation?

Mother Father Parents Together Parents Separately Other

4. How was the separation explained to the child? _____

5. Did either parent blame the other for the separation? _____

6. How did your child react to the news of the separation? _____

7. Mark each of the changes your child has experienced since the separation:

Loss of / change in home

Loss of activities due to finances

Loss of step siblings

Loss of friends

Loss of step parents

Loss of other relative(s)

Loss of contact with one parent

Change of schools

Loss of a pet

8. Additional changes:

One parent remarriage

Both parents remarry

More than one move

New step siblings

"At home" parent now works

Started a new school

Other changes: _____

9.Explain your child’s adjustment to the separation, divorce, or conflict.

10.Has your child adjusted to the “two home” schedule?

11.Circle any “transitional behaviors” your child may exhibit when they return from the other house:

Tearfulness Clingy Irritable Demanding Eating Problems Sleep Problems

12.Circle the usual recovery time needed by your child before they are resettled:

A few minutes About 30 minutes About an hour A few hours Several hours Full day

13. Does your child seem to be manipulating you or the co-parent? If so, explain:

14. Mark on this continuum your discipline or management style with an “S” and place a “CP” to represent the co-parent’s style:

Minimal limits	Maximum limits
No consequences	Corporal punishment

“TWO HOME” ISSUES

Location of pick-ups and how it is done:

Location of drop-offs and how it is done:

Transportation arrangements for the children between the parents are as follows:

Description of current custody agreement:

Description of current holiday agreements:

Description of current school arrangements:

Description of any current restraining orders or parole conditions currently in effect:

How is the child's property exchanged?
